Why is there pain and suffering in the world?

Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. (1 Peter 5:8)

Our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. (2 Corinthians 4:17)

These [grief-causing trials] have come so that your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire—may be proved genuine and may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. (1 Peter 1:7)

What if suffering is God's invitation to trust him?

"As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good." (Genesis 50:20)

For thus says the LORD: "Just as I have brought all this great disaster upon this people, so I will bring upon them all the good that I promise them." (Jeremiah 32:42)

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. (Philippians 4:6-7)
