6-week “Heaven” study for teenagers

Worksheets adapted from Randy Alcorn’s book Heaven for Kids

For Sunday school or small groups

The students in our junior high Sunday school class started asking questions about Heaven. I had just gone through an adult Sunday school study of Randy Alcorn’s book Heaven. As I answered the students’ questions, I realized they could benefit from studying Randy Alcorn’s book too. I read his book Heaven for Kids and wrote up some worksheets, creating a 6-week study for our students. If you’re planning to teach Heaven to your teenagers, these worksheets might help you prepare.

These worksheets include word games*, activities and challenges to engage your students, as well as promptings for worship and prayer. (There is also an optional New Earth Travel Guide that students might enjoy creating.) The main focus of each week’s lesson is building a solid foundation in Scripture. Students start with a question about Heaven, and then they look up the answers themselves (with your guidance) in the Bible.

It’s possible that one answer will spark a long discussion, and you might not have time to investigate all the questions together in class. Be sure to give students the answers to each remaining question, and recommend that they look up the Scripture verses on their own. (You can also expand this class beyond 6 weeks, but it’s hard to hold teenagers’ attention beyond that. You know your students better than anyone, so adapt it for them.)

Before you begin sharing this study with your students, I strongly recommend that you read Randy Alcorn’s book Heaven in its entirety – or listen to it on CD. Then read Heaven for Kids. Then spend a lot of preparation time, meditating over the Scripture verses and praying for your students. This 6-week study requires a lot of preparation, but it’s time well spent with the Lord.

I hope you and your students will be as excited as I am, with everything the Bible teaches us about the New Earth!

Scripture verses for word games are from the Holy Bible, New Living Translation

New Earth Travel Guide
Teacher Instructions

The New Earth Travel Guide is a way for your students to share what they’ve learned. They can share Scripture verses, write descriptions, draw pictures … be as creative as they want, as long as what they share lines up with God’s Word.

Introduce the Travel Guide to your students at the start of the six weeks. Give them a copy of the outline. Invite them to contribute something to the Travel Guide each week. If the Travel Guide isn’t finished by the end of the six weeks, invite students to spend another week or two working on it. Their “group responses” can also be included in the Travel Guide.

Below is a suggested outline, with section titles and things to include. You can make your own variation. Make the section title pages using construction paper, and let the students color and decorate each title page. Put together a folder to keep everything in – a 3-ring binder with hole punch works well.

1️⃣ The New Earth
   o What is it? (Students can share Scripture verses about the New Earth and give possible “descriptions” based on what they know from the Bible. Remind them to share how God will live among us!)
   o When can we go there? (Students can share about the Present Heaven; and share about the things that will happen in the future, and why God is waiting – II Peter 3:9.)
   o How long can we stay? (Students can share about Salvation and eternal life.)

2️⃣ How to pack
   o God’s Word (Students can share about God’s Word as the “ultimate travel guide;” and share how God’s Word helps us prepare for living in the New Earth.)
   o CRF “boosters” (CRF: Confession, Repentance, Forgiveness. Students can share how these “boosters” will prepare us for living in the New Earth. You can help them with this.)
   o Fruit of the Spirit (Students can share how the Holy Spirit produces “fruit” in us that prepares us for living in the New Earth. You can help them with this.)
   o Kingdom treasures (Students can share the meaning of Matthew 6:20 and how we can prepare now.)

3️⃣ Where to stay (Ask students to share what John 14:2-3 means to them.)
4️⃣ People to meet (Ask students to share who they look forward to meeting in Heaven.)
5️⃣ Places to see (Students can share some of the “features” that might be in the New Earth, based on what they’ve learned from the Bible.)
6️⃣ Things to do (Students can share some of the “activities” that might take place in the New Earth, based on what they’ve learned from the Bible.)
God's special collection

- God's refrigerator (Ask students to share some of the joyful moments here on earth – in their lives – that God might pin up on His refrigerator. Invite them also to draw a picture of their family for God's refrigerator.)

- God's mailbox (A great activity throughout the Heaven study is for students to write letters to God. We keep these letters in our prayer room; students can leave letters open to share, or they can seal them in envelopes for only God to read. Students write to God, telling Him what excites them about living with Him in the New Earth. Invite students to share a few of their “Letters to God” in the Travel Guide.)

- God's treasure box (Ask students to share moments when they observe Christ-like behavior in others – things that God would consider an irreplaceable treasure.)

- God's journal (Ask students to write about discoveries they make as they read God's Word – breakthroughs that God might record in His own personal journal.)

Invitation (Ask the students to write an invitation and prayer for others to join them in getting ready for the New Earth!)

Father, we thank You for all the wonderful things You have planned for us in the New Earth. Thank You for giving us eternal life with You! Heaven challenge (give students this challenge to work on this week; ask them to bring their answers next week; remind them to bring their folder and Bible with them next week)
Read Matthew 6:20, about “storing up treasures in Heaven.” This means doing things now (like helping other people, and showing God’s love) that matter most to God. When you do things to help God now, He promises to reward you with treasures when you get to Heaven! (Remember: You need to do good works out of your genuine love for God … not just for the sake of doing them. God looks at the honesty of love in your heart.)

For your Heaven Challenge: List several examples of people “storing up treasures in Heaven” – things you’ve seen other people do, or things you’ve heard about. You can look at people like Mother Teresa, and also people in your own family and community. For example, someone who always greets people with a smile and gives genuine compliments is “storing up treasures in Heaven.” Do you know anyone like this?

How do you think God feels when He sees His people do good works, out of their genuine love for Him? What can you learn about God from Matthew 6:20?

Teacher guide

New Earth Travel Guide \(\text{students turn in contributions}\)

Heaven Scripture verse – 10 min \(\text{decoding}\)
Let students complete the decoding to get this week’s Heaven Scripture verse: “Then I saw a new Heaven and a New Earth, for the old Heaven and the old earth had disappeared ... I heard a loud shout from the throne, saying, ‘Look, God’s home is now among His people! ... And the one sitting on the throne said, ‘Look, I am making everything new!’” – Revelation 21:1a, 3a, 5a

Group activity – 10 min \(\text{have students work together in small groups}\)
Imagine that you’re living in the New Earth, and you’re going to make a movie! What movie would you make, and who would be the actors in your movie? Think about people from the Bible, people from history, people from your family. (Remember, there will be no death or dying or sorrow or sin or any bad things in the New Earth – so don’t put those things in your movie!)
